PENALTIES AND CONSEQUENCES FOR FAILURE TO APPEAR AT A PROCEEDING, FAILURE TO SURRENDER FOR SERVICE OF SENTENCE, OR VIOLATIONS OF ANY CONDITION OF RELEASE

I. Loss of Property and/or Money

Defendant is advised that if she fails to appear before any court as required, the court may forfeit any property or money given or pledged as security for Defendant's bond and the court may enter judgment against Defendant and her sureties in the full amount of Defendant's appearance bond.

II. Prosecution for Bond Jumping

Defendant is advised that if she fails to appear before any court as required or fails to surrender for service of any sentence, Defendant may be charged with the crime of "bond jumping," as set out in 18 U.S.C. §3146. This crime is punishable by a term of imprisonment of up to ten years and a fine of up to $25,000.00, depending in part on the crime with which Defendant is now charged. A term of imprisonment for bond jumping will be consecutive to any term of imprisonment imposed for the crime with which Defendant is now charged.

III. Warrant for Defendant's Arrest, Order of Detention and Prosecution for Contempt

Defendant is advised that if she violates any condition of release, including but not limited to failing to appear as required, any one or more of the following may occur:

- 1. The court may issue a warrant for Defendant's arrest.
- 2. The court, after a hearing, may revoke Defendant's bond and order that Defendant be held in custody.
- 3. Defendant may be prosecuted and punished for contempt under 18 U.S.C. §401.

PENALTIES FOR COMMITTING CRIMES DURING THE PERIOD OF RELEASE

Defendant is advised that if she is convicted for an offense which was committed during her release, the court is required to impose the following sentence consecutive to any sentence Defendant may receive for commission of the offense committed during release:

- 1. If the offense committed during Defendant's release is a felony, a term of imprisonment of not more than ten years,
- 2. If the offense committed during Defendant's release is a misdemeanor, a term of imprisonment of not more than one year.

PROSECUTION FOR VIOLATING §§1503, 1510, 1512, and 1513

Defendant is advised that it is a crime, punishable by up to five years in prison and a $5,000.00 fine, to try to intimidate or influence any juror or officer of the court, to try to influence or obstruct the due administration of justice, or to try to obstruct the communication of information regarding a crime.

Defendant is further advised that it is a crime, punishable by up to ten years in prison and a $250,000.00 fine, to try to influence, or to retaliate against, a witness, victim or informant.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF DEFENDANT

I acknowledge that I am the Defendant in the above-captioned case and that I am aware of the above conditions of my release. I promise to obey all conditions of release, to appear as directed, and to surrender for service of any sentence imposed. I am aware of the penalties and sanctions set forth above.
